- Signed agreement with Clearway Group to commit to invest in the 452 MW Texas Solar Nova solar projects
- Received enhanced offer from Clearway Group to invest in Dan's Mountain Wind
- Received offer from Clearway Group to invest in 572 MW of solar plus storage projects
- Entered into new Resource Adequacy contracts for Marsh Landing and El Segundo
- Reiterating 2023 financial guidance range and initiating 2024 financial guidance
- Increasing the quarterly dividend by 2% to $0.3964 per share in the fourth quarter of 2023, or $1.5856 per share annualized. Achieved 8% dividend per share growth in 2023
- Continue to target annual dividend per share growth in the upper range of 5% to 8% through 2026

PRINCETON, NJ — November 2, 2023— Clearway Energy, Inc. (NYSE: CWEN, CWEN.A) today reported third quarter 2023 financial results, including Net Income of $15 million, Adjusted EBITDA of $323 million, Cash from Operating Activities of $287 million, and Cash Available for Distribution (CAFD) of $156 million.

"Clearway continues to expect 2023 full year results to be within the revised guidance range and has made further progress on executing toward its long-term objective to deliver at the upper range of its dividend growth target through 2026 without external debt or equity. With the commitment to invest in the Texas Solar Nova projects and the recent projects offered to CWEN, we now have full visibility into the deployment of the excess Thermal proceeds through commitments or offers. Importantly, the recent commitment and offers from our sponsor are at attractive economics and reflect the ability of the Clearway enterprise to adapt to the current capital markets environment," said Christopher Sotos, Clearway Energy, Inc.'s President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are fortunate to have a sponsor who's aligned with our disciplined capital allocation criteria. I remain confident that in partnership with our Board and sponsor, we can allocate capital to both drive CAFD per share growth and create long-term value creation for our investors."

Adjusted EBITDA and Cash Available for Distribution used in this press release are non-GAAP measures and are explained in greater detail under "Non-GAAP Financial Information" below.

Cash from Operating Activities	$ 287	$ 328	$ 496	$ 607
Cash Available for Distribution (CAFD)	$ 156	$ 154	$ 289	$ 328

For the third quarter of 2023, the Company reported Net Income of $15 million, Adjusted EBITDA of $323 million, Cash from Operating Activities of $287 million, and CAFD of $156 million. Net Income decreased versus 2022 primarily due to non-cash tax expenses from allocations of taxable earnings and losses from HLBV method accounting. Adjusted EBITDA results in the third quarter were in-line with 2022 as lower renewable production at certain sites and the expiration of certain tolling agreements in the Conventional fleet was offset by the contribution of growth investments. CAFD results in the third quarter of 2023 were in-line with 2022 as lower renewable production at certain sites was offset by the contribution of growth investments.

Operational Performance

Table 4: Selected Operating Results¹

($ MWh in thousands)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	9/30/23	9/30/22	9/30/23	9/30/22
Conventional Equivalent Availability Factor	97.9 %	93.9 %	87.5 %	92.5 %

Renewables generated/sold ²	3,907	3,367	11,494	11,102

In the third quarter of 2023, availability at the Conventional segment was higher than the third quarter of 2022 primarily due to forced outages in 2022. Generation in the Renewables segment during the third quarter of 2023 was 16% higher than the third quarter of 2022 primarily due to the contribution of growth investments.

¹ Excludes equity method investments

² Generation sold excludes MWh that are reimbursable for economic curtailment

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Table 5: Liquidity

($ millions)	9/30/2023	12/31/2022

Total Cash	$ 1,156	$ 996
Revolving credit facility availability	489	370
Total Liquidity	$ 1,645	$ 1,366

Total liquidity as of September 30, 2023, was $1,645 million, which was $279 million higher than as of December 31, 2022, primarily due to the refinancing of the revolving credit facility which increased its total capacity to $700 million from $495 million and additional project level restricted cash associated with growth investments, partially offset by the execution of growth investments.

As of September 30, 2023, the Company's liquidity included $590 million of restricted cash. Restricted cash consists primarily of funds to satisfy the requirements of certain debt arrangements and funds held within the Company's projects that are restricted in their use. As of September 30, 2023, these restricted funds were comprised of $160 million designated to fund operating expenses, approximately $316 million designated for current debt service payments, and $85 million of reserves for debt service, performance obligations and other items including capital expenditures. The remaining $29 million is held in distribution reserve accounts.

Potential future sources of liquidity include excess operating cash flow, availability under the revolving credit facility, asset dispositions, and, subject to market conditions, new corporate debt and equity financings.

Growth Investments and Strategic Announcements

Texas Solar Nova 1 and Texas Solar Nova 2

On August 30, 2023, the Company, through an indirect subsidiary, entered into an agreement to acquire interests in Texas Solar Nova 1 and Texas Solar Nova 2, 452 MW of solar projects under construction in Kent County, Texas, upon the projects meeting certain milestones. Upon achieving commercial operations the projects are underpinned by power purchase agreements with creditworthy counterparties with a weighted average contract duration of approximately 18 years. The Company expects to invest approximately $40 million, subject to closing adjustments. Commercial operations of the facilities and the Company's investment are expected to occur between the fourth quarter of 2023 and first half of 2024. The Company expects the projects to contribute asset CAFD on a five-year average annual basis of approximately $4 million beginning January 1, 2025.

Enhanced Offer to Invest in Dan's Mountain Wind

On October 16, 2023, Clearway Group provided an updated offer providing the Company the opportunity to own 100% cash equity interest in a 55 MW wind project located in Allegany County, Maryland that is expected to reach commercial operations in the first half of 2025. The potential corporate capital commitment for the investment is expected to be approximately $86 million. The investment is subject to negotiation, both with Clearway Group and the review and approval by the Company's Independent Directors.

Offer to Invest in 572 MW of Solar Plus Storage Projects

On October 16, 2023, Clearway Group offered the Company opportunities to enter into partnership arrangements to own cash equity interests in 572 MW of solar plus storage projects that are expected to reach commercial operations in 2025. The potential corporate capital commitment for the investments are expected to be approximately $105 million. The investments are subject to negotiation both with Clearway Group, and the review and approval by the Company's Independent Directors.

Resource Adequacy Agreements

During the third quarter, the Company signed contracts with California Load Serving Entities to sell Resource Adequacy for the following assets:

- Marsh Landing: The Company contracted with a load serving entity to sell approximately 400 MW of Resource Adequacy commencing September 2026 and ending December 2027. As of the end of the third quarter, 100% of Marsh Landing's net qualifying capacity is contracted through 2026. 63% of the project's net qualifying capacity is contracted in 2027 at terms providing for higher project level CAFD in 2027 relative to current run-rate expectations.
- El Segundo: The Company contracted with a load serving entity to sell approximately 274 MW of Resource Adequacy commencing August 2026 and ending December 2027. As of the end of the third quarter, 100% of El Segundo's net qualifying capacity is contracted through 2026. Approximately 50% of the project's net qualifying capacity is contracted in 2027 at terms providing for higher project level CAFD in 2027 relative to current run-rate expectations.

Quarterly Dividend

On November 1, 2023, Clearway Energy, Inc.'s Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend on Class A and Class C common stock of $0.3964 per share payable on December 15, 2023, to stockholders of record as of December 1, 2023.

The Company anticipates that a portion of the dividends expected to be paid in 2023 and beyond may be treated as taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The portion of dividends in future years that will be treated as taxable will depend upon a number of factors, including but not limited to, the Company's overall performance and the gross amount of any dividends made to stockholders in 2023 and beyond.

Seasonality

Clearway Energy, Inc.'s quarterly operating results are impacted by seasonal factors, as well as weather variability which can impact renewable energy resource. Most of the Company's revenues are generated from the months of May through September, as contracted pricing and renewable resources are at their highest levels in the Company's portfolio. Factors driving the fluctuation in Net Income, Adjusted EBITDA, Cash from Operating Activities, and CAFD include the following:

- Higher summer capacity and energy prices from conventional assets;
- Higher solar insolation during the summer months;
- Higher wind resources during the spring and summer months;
- Debt service payments which are made either quarterly or semi-annually;
- Timing of maintenance capital expenditures and the impact of both unforced and forced outages; and
- Timing of distributions from unconsolidated affiliates

The Company takes into consideration the timing of these factors to ensure sufficient funds are available for distributions and operating activities on a quarterly basis.

Financial Guidance

The Company is reiterating its 2023 full year CAFD guidance range of $330 million to $360 million.

The Company is initiating 2024 full year CAFD guidance of $395 million. The Company's 2024 financial guidance factors in the contribution of committed growth investments based on current expected closing timelines. 2024 CAFD guidance does not factor in the timing of when CAFD is realized from new growth investments pursuant to 5-year averages beyond 2024. 2024 financial guidance is based on median renewable energy production estimates for the full year.

Non-GAAP Financial Information

EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA

EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, and Cash Available for Distribution (CAFD) are non-GAAP financial measures. These measurements are not recognized in accordance with GAAP and should not be viewed as an alternative to GAAP measures of performance. The presentation of non-GAAP financial measures should not be construed as an inference that Clearway Energy's future results will be unaffected by unusual or non-recurring items.

EBITDA represents net income before interest (including loss on debt extinguishment), taxes, depreciation and amortization. EBITDA is presented because Clearway Energy considers it an important supplemental measure of its performance and believes debt and equity holders frequently use EBITDA to analyze operating performance and debt service capacity. EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool, and you should not consider it in isolation, or as a substitute for analysis of our operating results as reported under GAAP. Some of these limitations are:

- EBITDA does not reflect cash expenditures, or future requirements for capital expenditures, or contractual commitments;
- EBITDA does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, working capital needs;
- EBITDA does not reflect the significant interest expense, or the cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal payments, on debt or cash income tax payments;
- Although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated and amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements; and
- Other companies in this industry may calculate EBITDA differently than Clearway Energy does, limiting its usefulness as a comparative measure.

Because of these limitations, EBITDA should not be considered as a measure of discretionary cash available to use to invest in the growth of Clearway Energy's business. Clearway Energy compensates for these limitations by relying primarily on our GAAP results and using EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA only supplementally. See the statements of cash flow included in the financial statements that are a part of this news release.

Adjusted EBITDA is presented as a further supplemental measure of operating performance. Adjusted EBITDA represents EBITDA adjusted for mark-to-market gains or losses, non-cash equity compensation expense, asset write offs and impairments; and factors which we do not consider indicative of future operating performance such as transition and integration related costs. The reader is encouraged to evaluate each adjustment and the reasons Clearway Energy considers it appropriate for supplemental analysis. As an analytical tool, Adjusted EBITDA is subject to all of the limitations applicable to EBITDA. In addition, in evaluating Adjusted EBITDA, the reader should be aware that in the future Clearway Energy may incur expenses similar to the adjustments in this news release.

Management believes Adjusted EBITDA is useful to investors and other users of our financial statements in evaluating our operating performance because it provides them with an additional tool to compare business performance across companies and across periods. This measure is widely used by investors to measure a company's operating performance without regard to items such as interest expense, taxes, depreciation and amortization, which can vary substantially from company to company depending upon accounting methods and book value of assets, capital structure and the method by which assets were acquired.

Additionally, Management believes that investors commonly adjust EBITDA information to eliminate the effect of restructuring and other expenses, which vary widely from company to company and impair comparability. As we define it, Adjusted EBITDA represents EBITDA adjusted for the effects of impairment losses, gains or losses on sales, non-cash equity compensation expense, dispositions or retirements of assets, any mark-to-market gains or losses from accounting for derivatives, adjustments to exclude gains or losses on the repurchase, modification or extinguishment of debt, and any extraordinary, unusual or non-recurring items plus adjustments to reflect the Adjusted EBITDA from our unconsolidated investments. We adjust for these items in our Adjusted EBITDA as our management believes that these items would distort their ability to efficiently view and assess our core operating trends.

In summary, our management uses Adjusted EBITDA as a measure of operating performance to assist in comparing performance from period to period on a consistent basis and to readily view operating trends, as a measure for planning and forecasting overall expectations and for evaluating actual results against such expectations, and in communications with our Board of Directors, shareholders, creditors, analysts and investors concerning our financial performance.

Cash Available for Distribution

A non-GAAP measure, Cash Available for Distribution is defined as of September 30, 2023 as Adjusted EBITDA plus cash distributions/return of investment from unconsolidated affiliates, cash receipts from notes receivable, cash distributions from noncontrolling interests, adjustments to reflect sales-type lease cash payments and payments for lease expenses, less cash distributions to noncontrolling interests, maintenance capital expenditures, pro-rata Adjusted EBITDA from unconsolidated affiliates, cash interest paid, income taxes paid, principal amortization of indebtedness, changes in prepaid and accrued capacity payments, and adjusted for development expenses. Management believes CAFD is a relevant supplemental measure of the Company's ability to earn and distribute cash returns to investors.

We believe CAFD is useful to investors in evaluating our operating performance because securities analysts and other interested parties use such calculations as a measure of our ability to make quarterly distributions. In addition, CAFD is used by our management team for determining future acquisitions and managing our growth. The GAAP measure most directly comparable to CAFD is cash provided by operating activities.

However, CAFD has limitations as an analytical tool because it does not include changes in operating assets and liabilities and excludes the effect of certain other cash flow items, all of which could have a material effect on our financial condition and results from operations. CAFD is a non-GAAP measure and should not be considered an alternative to cash provided by operating activities or any other performance or liquidity measure determined in accordance with GAAP, nor is it indicative of funds available to fund our cash needs. In addition, our calculations of CAFD are not necessarily comparable to CAFD as calculated by other companies. Investors should not rely on these measures as a substitute for any GAAP measure, including cash provided by operating activities.
